

President Dwight Eisenhower said in February 17, 1953

- “Whether we are ready to face the job this minute or any other time, the fact is there must be balanced budgets before we are again on a safe and sound system in our economy. That means, to my mind, that we cannot afford to reduce taxes, reduce income, until we have in sight a program of expenditures that shows that the factors of income and of outgo will be balanced. Now that is just to my mind sheer necessity.”

David Stockman President Reagan’s Director of Office Management and Budget March 22, 1981

- “I don’t believe that there is any entitlement, any basic right to legal services or any other kinds of services, and the idea that’s been established over the last ten years that almost every service that someone might need in life ought to be provided, financed by the government as a matter of basic right, is wrong. We challenge that. We reject that notion.”

Thomas Edison Said

- “The first requisite for success is the ability to apply your physical and mental energies to one problem without growing weary.”

Henry Ford Said

- “Whether you think you can or whether you think you can’t, you’re right!”

Margaret Thatcher said

- “I am in politics because of the conflict between good and evil and I believe in the wend good will triumph.”

George Will Said

- “In the lexicon of the political class the word sacrifice means that the citizens are supposed to mail even more of their income to Washington so that the political class will not have to sacrifice the pleasure of spending it.”

P.J. O'Rourke said

- "Giving money and power to Government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys."
